The Illinois State Library (ISL) is the principal information resource for state government. The State Library has a collection of more than 5 million items, 185,000 maps, numerous electronic databases, an authoritative collection of historic and contemporary Illinois documents, and is the regional library in the Federal Depository Library Program.

The Illinois Authors Collection – The State Library collects various books by authors and illustrators from across the state. These books can be checked out with an ISL library card or requested through interlibrary loan.

Jim Edgar Reading Room – Dedicated in 2025, this room holds the non-circulating first editions of the Illinois Authors Collection. Highlights include the first edition set of the Wizard of Oz by L. Frank Baum and Audacity of Hope by Barack Obama.

Illinois Reads Collection – Each year, 30 books are selected representing a wide range of Illinois authors who write for various age groups. These books are celebrated in school and public libraries throughout the year.

Read for a Lifetime Collection – This collection is part of a program that encourages high school students to develop a love for reading to last a lifetime. Twenty-five books are chosen yearly and students who participate receive special recognition from the Secretary of State.

Banned Book Collection – In celebration of the freedom to read, the State Library maintains a collection of banned books. These materials are available for check out or request by interlibrary loan.

Statewide Databases – This service provides no-cost access to reliable information through the statewide databases, which are available to anyone located in the state of Illinois.

ISL Library Card – State of Illinois employees and patrons with an active library card from any Illinois public library may apply for a library card at the Illinois State Library.
